

The RSB's Business Forum

16 November 2017

Hyatt Regency Hotel
Vancouver, Canada

AGENDA

08.30 - 09:00

Welcome coffee

09.00 - 09:30

Keynote address: A stable climate sustains healthy ecosystems, economies, and societies

Stephen Elliot-Wetmore: Sustainable Business. Partnerships. Innovations
WWF-SA and Co-Chair of the RSB Board

Amy Malaki: Program Manager-Oil, ClimateWorks Foundation

09.30 - 10.30

Commercialising biojet fuel: opportunities, challenges, benefits and risks

Steve Fabijanksi: President and CEO, Agrisoma

Rolf Hogan: Executive Director, RSB

Yee Chow: Biofuels and Carbon Strategy, Cathay Pacific

Fred Eychenne: Sustainable Aviation Engagement Programme Manager, Airbus

Tjasa Bole-Rentel: Energy Economics and Policy Specialist, Policy Futures Unit,
WWF-SA

10.30 - 11.00

Coffee Break

11.00 - 12.45

Panel Discussion: Scaling up: Theory and reality, bioeconomy and biodiversity

Professor John (Jack) Saddler: Professor of Forest Products
Biotechnology / Bioenergy, University of British Columbia

Alix Grabowski: Senior Program Officer, Sustainability R&D, WWF-US

Tania Buenrostro: Sustainable Fuels Specialist, Mexico Biojet Cluster

Pedro Scorza: Renewable Fuels / Captain, Gol Airlines

Dr Bruno Miller, Managing Director Fuels, Fulcrum Bioenergy

Darrin Morgan, Director, Sustainable Fuels Strategy, Boeing

12.45 - 13.00

Wrap up and closing

Rolf Hogan, Executive Director, RSB

Rodger O'Connell, Facilitator